Final Written Draft of Quilt History

Please attach a final written history for your quilt. This history can be used to record historical facts, the reason for a particular pattern, special stories or experiences connected with the quilt or its makers, or any other story relating to your quilt's construction and/or quilting. This history will be displayed with the quilt during the week of the quilt show. History must be typed.

Please submit this history along with your finished quilt.
Remember, finished quilts can be accepted any time before the official turn in date of...
September 12, 2009!
