FESTIVAL OF TREES®

2023 SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Join Us for the Festival of Trees

Intermountain Foundation and the Festival of Trees leadership team invites you to join us as a sponsor of the 2023 Festival of Trees. We are pleased to announce proceeds from this year’s event will continue to support Intermountain Primary Children’s Hospital to build the nation’s model health system for children.

This longstanding annual tradition, now in its 53rd year, is brought to life by a dedicated volunteer board of 65 individuals who enlist the time and talents of thousands of families, organizations, and businesses throughout Utah and neighboring states. Together they create an incredible experience for the community, with an average attendance between 70,000 and 100,000, while raising funds to benefit children and families from across the Intermountain West who receive specialized care at Primary Children’s Hospital.

Event Details

Festival of Trees: Tuesday, November 28 – Saturday, December 2, 2023
