2. Understanding
   I understand the following.
   a. I can refuse to sign this Authorization and Release.
   b. I can cancel this Authorization and Release at any time and for any reason by writing Intermountain's Communications Department. If I do that, my information cannot be disclosed after I cancel. Otherwise, this authorization and release will continue in effect as long as Intermountain Healthcare is actively providing healthcare services.
   c. Refusing or changing my mind about this Authorization and Release will not negatively affect me or my family in terms of healthcare treatment, payment for that healthcare, or patient benefits.
   d. Federal privacy rules govern Intermountain Healthcare's use of this information. (For more information about Intermountain Healthcare's use of health information and your health-information Privacy Rights, ask for a copy of Intermountain Healthcare's Notice of Privacy Practices.)
   e. I understand that others will see the information that I authorize to share publicly. Those who see this information may not be governed by the same privacy rules that apply to Intermountain Healthcare.
   f. I understand what information may be released under this Authorization and Release.

3. Signature
   By signing below, I release my information to, and authorize, Intermountain Healthcare to disclose that information in publications, for example in electronic, audio, and printed form in news media; in publications, advertising brochures; and fundraising pamphlets, social media and other communications. My questions about this Authorization and Release have been answered to my satisfaction.
