

PEDIATRIC SCREENER FOR EATING

Directions: Please complete the following questionnaire according to the age of the child. If you answer YES to any of the following questions, we recommend that you come in for further evaluation of your child's eating difficulties by one of our pediatric feeding specialists (occupational therapy or speech therapy depending on the eating difficulties).

Questions For All Ages

Is your child on a feeding tube?	Y	N
Does your child have issues with vomiting?	Y	N
Does your child have issues with choking, gagging, or coughing during a meal/feeding?	Y	N
Does your child seem to have fear or anxiety associated with food?	Y	N
Do you and your child fight about food or is mealtime a struggle?	Y	N

Questions for Children 12 Months and Younger

Does your child have difficulties coordinating breathing and eating?	Y	N
Is your child 10 months or older and not able to eat pureed/baby foods?	Y	N
Is your child 12 months or older and not eating table foods?	Y	N
Does your child have poor weight gain?	Y	N

Questions for Children 13 Months and Older

Is your child 16 months or older and still eating mainly pureed/baby foods?	Y	N
Does your child eat less than 30 foods?	Y	N
Does your child avoid a certain texture or nutrition group? (examples: avoids wet textures, won't eat any fruits or vegetables, etc.)	Y	N

-Questionnaire adopted from Dr. Kay Toomey

DRMC Pediatric Outpatient Rehab
652 South Medical Center Drive
Lower Level
St. George, UT 84790
Phone: (435) 251-2250

Feeding Specialists:
James Stewart, Occupational Therapist
Jessica LaDow, Speech Therapist