The conference is designed to assist the clinician to navigate the many unique challenges inherent in the management of children with cleft lip and palate anomalies. The conference will focus on current and new treatment modalities in the management of these children. A comprehensive approach to management will be outlined including: initial evaluation for feeding and hearing concerns, pre-surgical orthodontics, the important role of a social worker, sequences of plastic surgeries involved in cleft lip and palate repair, cleft rhinoplasty, orthognatic surgery speech and the management of velopharyngeal insufficiency.
