

Meet Our Residents

Intermountain Medical Center Podiatry Medicine & Surgery

First Year Residents

Calvin Buck, DPM

Calvin was born and raised in southeast Minnesota. He earned his bachelor's degree in biology from Winona State University in Minnesota and his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Des Moines University in Iowa. Calvin was an active student at DMU as a teaching assistant for both clinical medicine and ultrasound, as well as participating in many clubs and intramural sports. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with friends, being outdoors, and watching any and all sports.

Matthew Cazier, DPM

Matt was born in Salt Lake City and grew up in West Valley City, UT. He earned a BA in Spanish from the University of Utah and graduated from the California School of Podiatric Medicine with his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree. He feels that his life experiences have given him a passion to go the extra mile for his patients. When he gets a chance to relax, Matt enjoys playing video games, hiking and playing tennis.

Julia Cloutier, DPM

Julia grew up in Rhode Island where she completed her Bachelor's Degree in Health Sciences with a minor in Biology. She earned her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Barry University. While in school, her extracurricular activities ranged from captain of the Barry Podiatry volleyball and softball teams to President of the American Association of Podiatric Sports Medicine. In her free time, she enjoys anything outdoors: hiking, biking, snowboarding, and spending time with her friends and family.

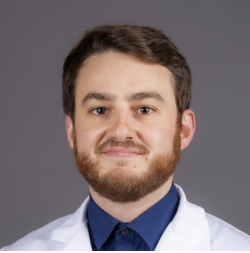

Braden Harris, DPM

Braden was born and raised in Gunnison, Utah. After high school, he spent 2 years in Tonga, followed by undergraduate studies at Utah State University. During college, Braden played football for Utah State as well as completing his bachelor's degree in human biology. He then moved to Arizona along with his wife and newborn son to complete his podiatric medical degree at Midwestern University. In his free time, Braden loves spending time with his friends and family, playing sports and various other outdoor activities.

Taylor Shumway, DPM

Taylor received his Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from Brigham Young University. From Utah, he moved to Oakland, California where he earned his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Samuel Merritt University's College of Podiatric Medicine. While attending podiatry school, he participated in community service, student organizations, and biomechanics research. In his free time, Taylor enjoys spending time with his family, hiking, dirt biking, and playing basketball.

Keanyn Skinfill, DPM

Keanyn grew up in Laguna Beach, CA where he spent most of his days at the beach. He received a B.S. in Human Biology from UC Santa Cruz and then worked as a pathology assistant in San Jose, CA for 3 years before moving with his wife to Vietnam and then to South Korea for 2 years where they taught English and traveled together. After their return to the United States, they moved to Chicago where Keanyn was accepted to the Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. Keanyn enjoys spending time with his family, hiking, gardening, video games, aviation, flight simulators, rock climbing, and anything involving the ocean.

Second Year Residents

Michael Amedeo, DPM

Michael was born and raised in Middletown, MD. He earned his undergraduate degree in Biology from the University of Maryland, College Park and his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine Degree from Western University of Health Sciences. While at WUCPM, he served as lead editor of the school's student-run research journal, Extremitas. In his free time, Michael enjoys skiing, hiking, road trips, and watching his favorite sports teams, the Washington Capitals and Washington Commanders.

Abbey Esbenson, DPM

Abbey is a Colorado native who graduated with a degree in Molecular Biology and English from Regis University in Denver, Colorado. She then received her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. There she served as President of the Medical Forensics club. She was also a student advocate for diversity and inclusion within the school and clinic, writing about social determinants of health. Abbey is also interested in research in wound care and forensic science, presenting papers and posters on both subjects. When not working, she enjoys hiking, biking, yoga, painting, and watching YouTube videos on historical figures.

Omar Khalife, DPM

Omar Khalife was born and raised in Southern California. He attended the University of Southern California and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting. After a lot of reflection and working extensively in the public and private accounting sectors, Omar decided to pursue his dream of becoming a doctor. He earned his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Rosalind Franklin University, Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. While at SCPM, he served as Chairman of several outreach organizations that coordinated weekly tutoring sessions for youth from underserved communities. In his free time, Omar enjoys nature and loves to go on hikes, explore different cuisines, watch sports, and ski.

Shrina Patel, DPM

Shrina was born in Chicago, IL and raised in Carol Stream, IL. She received her undergraduate degree in Health Management and Forensic Science from Saint Louis University. She earned her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Rosalind Franklin University, Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. While at SCPM, she served as the Vice President of the Illinois Podiatric Medical Student Association, Judicial Committee Representative on class council and helped organize and coordinate the annual Diwali show. She is also a member of the Pi Delta Honors Society. Shrina enjoys spending time with her friends and family, traveling, dancing, watching Bollywood movies and reading psychological thrillers.

Leah Ughoc, DPM

Leah U. McDermott was born and raised in Santa Barbara, CA. She received her undergraduate degree in Mathematics and went on to receive her Master's in Biomedical Sciences and her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine from Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science in North Chicago, IL. There she received multiple merit-based scholarships and was very involved as a Clinic Manager with the student run Interprofessional Community Clinic. Leah is married and has a Lab Ridgeback dog named Nala. Leah enjoys all water activities, beach walks with her dog, hiking, biking, going to the gym, reading, exploring new restaurants, board games, and cheering on the SF 49ers and SF Giants.

Katherine Ustick, DPM

Katie was born and raised in Houston, Texas. She attended Southern Methodist University, where she completed her bachelor's degree in Biological Sciences. She went on to earn her doctorate in Podiatric Medicine from New York College of Podiatric Medicine. In her free time, Katie enjoys hiking, rollerblading, and hosting game nights with friends. She is looking forward to trying many new restaurants and hopes to find the best queso in Salt Lake City.

Third Year Residents

Michael Anderson, DPM

Michael Anderson was born and raised in Sandy, Utah. He attended Brigham Young University and graduated with a degree in Physiology and Developmental Biology. He then went on to obtain his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine at Midwestern University in Arizona, where he received the Wiche Scholarship. Michael had the opportunity to participate in medical service missions to both Senegal and Tonga, where he initially developed a passion for treating foot and ankle pathologies. He is married with two children, fluent in Portuguese, and enjoys spending time with his family, fishing, and hiking. In his free time, he also enjoys playing sports, especially basketball and pickleball.

Saloni Buch, DPM

Saloni is from Chicago, IL and received her undergraduate degree in Molecular Biology and Spanish at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. She earned her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Rosalind Franklin University, Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine. While at SCPM, she served as vice president of the Illinois Podiatric Medical Student Association and organized the annual Diwali show with various student dance performances. Saloni enjoys dancing, cooking, playing soccer, Bollywood music, and spending time with her friends and family.

Tobee Gunter, DPM

Tobee is a Utah native who graduated with honors in human development at the University of Utah. She then received her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Des Moines University in Iowa. There she served as a teaching assistant for the surgical courses and vice president of the student chapter of American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons. She was a student representative for podiatric public health and an active volunteer at women's shelters and clinics. Tobee has traveled across the world presenting research and placed in many conferences. She enjoys running, biking, gymnastics, exploring Utah's mountains, snow and water sports, baking, and driving her motorcycle.

Trent Haslam, DPM

Trent was born and raised in Salt Lake City, Utah. He received his undergraduate degree in Exercise and Sport Science from the University of Utah. After earning his bachelor's degree, Trent completed his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine at Kent State University College of Podiatric Medicine. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with family and friends, snowboarding, weightlifting, hiking, and golfing. Trent is excited for the opportunity to treat the community he grew up in.

Connor Reed, DPM

Connor earned his bachelor's degree in biomechanics from the University of Nebraska at Omaha and his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree from Des Moines University. Connor was an active student at DMU, serving as research coordinator for the DMU student chapter of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons and a lower limb anatomy teaching assistant, as well as participating in many clubs and intramural sports. Connor and his wife Jordan are native Nebraskans and are excited to move to Utah with their son Carson. They enjoy exercising, skiing, traveling, and cheering on the Huskers.

Gautam Sowda, DPM

Gautam is from San Jose, CA. He received his bachelor's degree in biomechanical engineering from Georgia Tech and his doctorate degree from the California School of Podiatric Medicine. While in podiatry school, he was involved in community service, student organizations, and research. Outside of podiatry, he enjoys trying new restaurants, watching anime, and hiking/running trails.